

Counsel appointed to represent indigent defendants in non-death capital cases and first-degree felony cases shall be compensated for their services as follows:

Court appearance (including uncontested disposition): $50-300/appearance

Evidentiary court appearance (including jury trial): $500-1500/day

Out-of-court time: $50-$150/hour

Appellate time: $50-125/hour

Post-Conviction Writ/DNA $50-125/hour

64.01(c) DNA Review $300 flat

Attorneys who are approved for appointments to non-English speakers and are appointed to represent indigent defendants requiring an interpreter or attorney speaking that non-English language in non-death capital cases and first-degree felony cases shall be compensated for their services as follows:

Court appearance (including uncontested disposition): $50-300/appearance

Evidentiary court appearance (including jury trial): $500-1500/day

Out-of-court time: $200 /hour

Appellate time: $50-125/hour

Post-Conviction Writ/DNA $50-125/hour

64.01(c) DNA Review $300 flat

Counsel appointed to represent indigent defendants in all other felony cases shall be compensated for their services as follows:

Court appearance $50-300/appearance

Evidentiary court appearance $500-1,250/day

Out-of-court time $50-125/hour

Appellate time $50-125/hour

Post-Conviction Writ/DNA $50-125/hour

64.01(c) DNA Review

$300 flat

For purposes of calculating the amount to be paid for an evidentiary court appearance, a day is considered to be a calendar day even if it exceeds eight hours. Where time spent in an evidentiary court appearance is less than eight hours, the district judge may authorize payment for a pro rata share of a day's compensation. Time spent out of court on the same day as an evidentiary court appearance may be billed under the category of "out-of-court time."